

SEAN LONG

1241 Salmon River Rd., Riverside, CA 92501
(408) 666 - 7326 ♦ slong008@ucr.edu ♦ seandlong.github.io

EDUCATION

---

University of California, Riverside, CA
Doctorate in Political Science (In Process)

September 2017 - Present

Georgetown University, D.C.
Master's in American Government

Earned August 2015

Reed College, OR
Bachelor's in Philosophy

Earned June 2012

PUBLICATIONS

---

Can States Promote Minority Representation? Assessing the Effects of the California Voting Rights Act by Loren Collingwood and Sean Long
Published in Urban Affairs Review in December 2019.

Demographic Change, White Decline, and the Changing Nature of Racial Politics in Election Campaigns by Loren Collingwood, Stephanie DeMora, and Sean Long Forthcoming in the Cambridge Handbook of Political Psychology.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

---

Research Skills. Through various research projects, I have utilized and developed the following skills:

- Research team management and supervision
- Text data collection, processing, and analysis
- Matching and difference in difference designs
- ARIMA models and time-series analysis
- Qualtrics and experimental designs
- Supervised and unsupervised machine learning

Topics of focus. I also have specifically focused in the following substantive topics:

- Political extremism and interpersonal violence
- Media studies, including framing, fragmentation, and agenda setting
- Public opinion and social identity

TECHNICAL SKILLS

---

Software      R, Microsoft Office Suite, Latex, basic Python

ACADEMIC WORK EXPERIENCE

---

University of California, Riverside

Classes Taught: Introduction to American Politics, Political Ideologies, Introduction to Political Theory, Modern Political Theory

Teaching Assistant
Political Science Department

September 2018 - Present

Associate Instructor
Political Science Department

Summer 2020

Quantitative Methods Consultant
GradQuant

March 2020 - June 2020

Graduate Researcher
Center for Social Innovation

April 2019 - June 2019

NON-ACADEMIC WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Research and Analysis Consultant

Fall 2015- Present

- Performed research on diverse topics such as energy grid security and agricultural emissions
- Analyzed web traffic data, providing visualizations for interpretability

American Gas Association: *Research Intern

January 2015 - Fall 2015

- Conducted research on technical topics to support policy making and lobbying efforts
- Wrote summaries of the research, drafted talking points, and prepared informational handouts

Media Research Center: *Staff Writer

September 2013- August 2014

- Authored regular blogs, including both short news items and longer research and analysis pieces
- Closely followed political news and helped determine research questions and topics of interest

McCullough Research: *Research Associate

June 2012- June 2013

- Compiled extensive research reports and interfaced with media during their distribution
- Collected and analyzed a variety of data, including archival sources and FOIA requests